

PRESS RELEASE

Amsterdam, 6 May 2008

AMSTEL HOTEL OPENS REVAMPED TERRACE

The terrace of the InterContinental Amstel Amsterdam's Amstel Bar & Brasserie has been completely revamped. The teak furniture has been replaced with comfortable armchairs, sleek tables and stylish black parasols. Fragrant plants and small boats gliding on the water create a sense of the Mediterranean on the Amstel river.

It is possible to dine al fresco on the terrace, in a cosy and informal setting. Experience the special concept of 'live cooking', enabling you to observe our Chef at work. Enjoy the natural flavours of fruits de mer, Canadian lobster, marinated spring chicken from the spit or a grilled New York sirloin steak. The extensive drinks list offers a wide choice of champagnes, wines served by the glass and cocktails.

InterContinental Amstel Amsterdam has been regarded as the Netherlands' most prestigious hotel since it opened its doors in 1867. The hotel has two restaurants: the Michelin-star awarded La Rive and the atmospheric Amstel Bar & Brasserie. Talkies Magazine proclaimed La Rive's terrace the Terrace of the Year in 2005.
